Course Title: MUSP 2233– Applied Commercial Music: Advanced Electric Bass

Private Music Lessons in the Commercial Music Department –

Private instruction in musical instruments/voice is open to all South Plains College students, but those seeking the A.A.A. Degree, or Certificate in Commercial Music, may be subject to additional departmental requirements (see Barrier Exams I & II, and Capstone Experience – below).

MUSP 1204 –Applied Commercial Music: Electric Bass

I. General Course Info

Description: Private instruction in Electric Bass with goals related to commercial music.

Note: The student will have a one hour session of private instruction per week during which time the instructor will guide and monitor the student’s daily practice. The remaining 3.0 lab hours per week are guided study under the supervision of the instructor, and will be specific to the particular instrument or voice.

- A. Course Learning Outcomes: Demonstrate proficiency in commercial music repertoire and technique; develop a professional disciplined approach to performance skills; and present a juried performance for faculty (majors).

The student will demonstrate proficiency in bass technique, theory, reading notation, ear training, and repertoire; develop a disciplined professional approach to performance skills; and perform a mid-term and final exam and/or jury (majors).

- B. Course Competencies: Departmental Competency Standards have been developed as guidelines for those seeking the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music. However, these are a technical “base-line” only and may not constitute total compliance with class assignments.

Juries –A jury is a cumulative final exam over the course of study. The instructor shall determine the membership of the jury and if one is required.

- C. Academic Integrity: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. Students should refer to the SPC General Catalog, pg. 22-23 “Academic Integrity” as well as “Student Conduct” sections.

- E. SCANS COMPETENCIES: C – 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 15, 18, 19
FOUNDATION SKILLS: F – 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16

- F. Verification of Workplace Competencies: Successful completion of this course will equip the student with many of the skills necessary to complete the Capstone Experience (presented at the end of the second semester of study for certificate candidates and at the end of the fourth semester of study for degree candidates).

Capstone Experience: Students seeking the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music must satisfactorily complete specific requirements 1] As a performer in a full-length televised public performance (music festival), and 2] by passing all applicable Barrier Exams. These festivals occur twice a year (once at the completion of the fall and spring semesters).

Barrier Exam I: Students seeking the Certificate in Commercial Music must pass a test of minimum performance standards administered by a qualified panel of faculty members. This test is arranged by appointment with the department.

Barrier Exam II: Students seeking the A.A.A. Degree in Commercial Music must pass a test of minimum advanced performance standards administered by a qualified panel of faculty members. This test is arranged by appointment with the department.

Standards for the Barrier Exams shall be determined and published by the faculty. In all cases, the standards under which a student matriculates will remain in force, unless the student chooses to accept the current standard instead.

II. Specific Course/Instructor Requirements:

- A. The instructor will select textbook and other materials appropriate texts and materials.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor.

Lab hours may consist of rehearsals, concerts and workshops and other activities deemed appropriate by the instructor. Teachers may substitute "directed" study activities for these events for students who cannot attend on-campus events. Attendance forms and credit descriptions may be acquired from your instructor.

Assignment Policy: Each lesson will begin with a review of the material assigned at the previous lesson. Each lesson will conclude with a brief summary of the new material and the assignment for the next lesson. A daily numerical grade will be assigned by the instructor based on his evaluation of the student's accomplishment of the assigned goals.

Students enrolled in Commercial Music Ensembles are required to take private instrument (waiver subject to the discretion of the department chairman). This enables the student to gain advantage from the teacher's ensemble experience.

- A. Grading Policy/Procedure: The final grade will be an average of all grades recorded for the semester.

The instructor may excuse absences, at his/her discretion. Generally, letter grades are assigned as follows: A: 90-100, B: 80-89, C: 70-79, D: 60-69, F: Below 60.

- B. Special Requirements: There are no specific entry-level standards for this course. All private lesson students will be working toward specific competencies as outlined in the course of study designed by the instructor for their specific level of ability.

Students working toward the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music must pass the required departmental Barrier Exam(s) – see above. Students should seek advice from instructors as to their status with respect to these tests.

- C. Should a student become ill they are advised to stay home and either see the school nurse or their personal doctor. Do not return to class until the health issues have been treated and are improving to beyond the contagious stages.

III. Course Outline:

Outline by Topic:

The depth of exploration into each area will be determined by the instructor, based on the student's individual level of ability, and the student's expressed musical goals and interests.

Technique: systematic study of best practices pertaining to the instrument or voice

Theory: Knowledge of theoretical concepts as they apply to the instrument or voice.

Notation: Reading standard musical notation and recognizing and understanding the Nashville numbering system and standard ASCAP chord symbols.

Ear Training: Guidance toward greater aural skills in recognizing ensemble textures and melodic and harmonic pitches.

Improvisation: Development and application of skills.

Repertoire: Demonstrate the ability to perform prepared pieces in a nearly perfect manner commensurate with skill level.

Outline by Week:

Week 1 – Assess the student's current competency and experience.

Weeks 2 – 6 – Follow course outline as indicated above. Give special emphasis to areas of special interest and/or difficulty to student. Prepare for upcoming exam or jury.

Weeks 7 – 15 – Follow similar curriculum to weeks 2-6

Week 16 – Perform final exam/jury

IV. Accommodations

South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age (SPC Equal Opportunity Policy—General Catalog).

V. Diversity

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

VI. Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-252

Face Covering Course Syllabus Statement—Rev. 1/4/2021

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Spring 2021 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation. Students who believe they have been exposed or may be COVID-19 positive, must contact Health Services, DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at (806) 716-2376 or dedens@southplainscollege.edu.
