Attendance and Participation Policy

This is an online class. Students must be responsible for checking into Blackboard daily for announcements/assignments and submitting work on time. There is no on-campus attendance requirement for this course. * Instructor's note: You must be present in your own life! When a course is structured to be completed online, you must hold yourself accountable for communication (with both your Instructor and your classmates), and for checking on and finishing work. This is the key to your success in the course! Students who have not submitted an assignment for three weeks and/or are not passing the class with a 60 or higher may risk being dropped from the class. Be advised – I will accept late work for a week past the due date, but there will be a deduction associated with all late assignments.

Grading Policy

Final grades will be assigned based on the following percentages:

Essay Assignments
Essay	40%
Essay Work	15%
MindTap	30%
Discussions	15%
Total	100%

A (Superior):	90-100
B (Good):	80-89
C (Acceptable):	70-79
D (Poor):	60-69
F (Unacceptable):	0-59

GRADE TOTAL

It is up to you to monitor your average and course progress. If at any time you feel that you need to discuss your course progress with me, it is your responsibility to contact me to meet. You can find your current average via the 'Gradebook' link in Blackboard.

Reading Assignments and Video Lectures

Mandatory, assigned reading is required for this course; you may also be required to watch recorded video lectures. Reading and video lecture assignments can be found on the course calendar in Blackboard.

Announcements

Any information sent-out via announcements in emails, via REMIND, or posted as an announcement on the course website is essential and is, accordingly, an extension of assignment requirements and syllabus policies. Students must read all announcements and will be held responsible for any information posted in the announcements.

Essays

You will be required to submit three rough drafts and three final essays. There will be several steps to complete for each Essay. The first step is the completion of a rough draft. The second is participation in a revision workshop. The third is the submission of a revised final draft of your Essay. If you do not submit a rough draft on the due date, you will not be allowed to participate, which will result in a zero for the grade. Due dates can be found on the course calendar, and specific assignment details can be found in the module folders in Blackboard.

MindTap / Daily Coursework

Throughout the semester, you will be required to complete several online MindTap exercises, quizzes, and daily assignments. Availability and due dates are available on the course calendar. In addition to covering the content presented in the assigned chapters, MindTap exercises will help you review your grammar and help you think about the writing process. When averaged together, these assignments are worth 30% of your final grade, so the completion of your daily assignments is very important.

Discussions

Collaboration and communication are essential to success in both academic and professional settings. To practice these skills and further our knowledge of the subjects we cover in this course, each student will be required to participate in weekly video discussions. There are two parts to each module discussion assignment. The first is an initial post. The second part includes 1 or 2 responses to your peers, which will be due in the second half of each module. A point deduction will be applied to initial posts not posted by the first deadline, and no response posts will be counted for credit after the second deadline. The discussion posts are worth 15% of your grade. Please be respectful to all when posting and commenting on the Discussion Board.

Grading Time Frames

I grade all work as efficiently and quickly as possible. When your assignments are evaluated, you will have them back; please do not inquire as to whether or not your papers are graded.

Due Dates

Due dates are posted on the course calendar and are firm. Any written assignment submitted past the due date will receive an automatic deduction in points after the first 24 hours. Late assignments must be turned in within seven days of the due date to receive partial credit. After seven days, your papers will not be accepted, and you will receive a zero for the assignment. If there are excusable circumstances which might justify an extension on the assignment, arrangements must be made with your Instructor.

Please turn your work in on time, so your overall grade does not suffer from late deductions.

Due times are 9:00 a.m. on the date listed on the calendar.

Although I may post reminders about assignment due dates, it is ultimately your responsibility to keep up with these dates on your syllabus calendar.

Assignment Submission

I cannot accept any assignment via email, for any reason. All files must be submitted via the assignment tool in the Blackboard modules.

As an online student, you assume responsibility for your technology. I suggest three things:

1. Have a backup plan in place from day one, just in case your technology fails.
2. After submitting an assignment, return to the assignment submission before the due date or check your SPC email for submission acknowledgment to verify it's been submitted properly. If it's not submitted properly by the due date, you will not receive credit for it, regardless of whether you thought the paper had sent.
3. Don't wait until the last minute to submit assignments. If you have trouble, but no one is available to help you, you will incur the late deduction associated with late assignments.
4. Additionally, all files must be submitted as .docx documents (Microsoft Word). Other file formats such as .gdoc, .pages, .odt, .rtf, or .txt files will not work with Turnitin. If you are writing your Essay on Google Docs, you will need to download the paper to your computer in Microsoft Word format before submitting to Turnitin.

Please contact the Computer Help Desk at (806)716-2600 or Blackboard Help at (806)716-2180 with any problems related to technology. Remember, you are responsible for making sure your work has been submitted correctly.

Style Guide

We will use the MLA formatting and documentation in this course. Specific rules regarding this style guide can be found in Blackboard. All documents you submit should be formatted using MLA standards, and all citations you write, whether in-text or on a References page, should follow MLA guidelines for citation.

Academic Integrity

"Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism" and will not be tolerated (General Catalog 23). Furthermore, cheating will not be tolerated (see General Catalog 23). You must do your own work on paragraphs and homework. Submitting portions of or complete papers downloaded from the internet, for example, is plagiarism. Allowing someone else to revise your writing is plagiarism. Submitting a paper written for another class is cheating. Depending on the nature and the severity of the problem, a student who cheats or plagiarizes may receive penalties ranging from a zero for the assignment to an "F" in the course. Extreme cases may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from South Plains College.

Do not, under any circumstances, turn in another student's work as your own. Do not, under any circumstances, give your work to anyone else to turn in as their own. Do not copy and paste from the internet. All of these situations are representative of academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

Note to Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2529.

If you have a disability-related need for reasonable academic adjustments in this course, make an appointment with me ASAP to privately discuss your specific accommodations. If you need immediate accommodations or physical access, please arrange to meet with the Disability Services Office before the next class meeting.

Diversity Statement

In this course, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is but also model society as it should be and can be.

Please Note The Instructor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus and policies, as well as notify students of any changes at any point during the semester. Continued enrollment by the student in the course indicates that the student agrees and will abide by all policies set forth in this syllabus by the Instructor.

Class Schedule – ENGL 1301 Fall 2020

This schedule serves to outline the material/subject matter we will cover in class. All major assignments will be accompanied by instructions detailing specific requirements and due dates via your Instructor and/or Blackboard.

Any written assignment submitted past the due date will receive an automatic deduction in points after the first 24 hours. Late assignments must be turned in within seven days of the due date to receive partial credit. Assignments submitted more than seven days past the deadline will receive a zero for the assignment unless there are excusable circumstances which might justify an extension on the assignment, arrangements must be made with your Instructor.

Please note that if there are readings or assignments due on a certain date, you need to be working on them and have them completed before they are due on the schedule.
